MAPS FOR LOAN

The gear custodian, Trevor Stretton, 28 Carroll St., holds maps of the Tararuas, Ruahines, the Egmont and Tongariro National Parks and the Kaimanawas. These are available on free loan to trip leaders of official Club trips.

HIRE GEAR

This continues to be held at 28 Carroll St. and is available to club members and to non members on club trips at modest rates of hire. Tents, tent flies, ropes, billies, primuses, first aid kits, ice axes, crampons, packs, sleeping bags and parkas are available for loan but must be returned promptly if extra hire charges are to be avoided. Ring 840925 or call on Trevor Stretton for your requirements.

TRIP ACCOUNTS

Trip accounts form an important part of the Club's Newsletter. Trip leaders are requested to ensure that all Club trips are written up either by doing it themselves or by delegating the responsibility. Trip accounts need not be long but should include the names of the participants. Leaders are warned that the editor is not scrupulous when it comes to extracting trip accounts!

LOG BOOK

The Club maintains a log book as a record of its activities and to provide information for trip leaders visiting areas they are unfamiliar with. Log Keeper Karyn Bishop will be soliciting factual information from trip leaders and is particularly interested in times and distances, details of route and of special hazards as well as farmers' names etc. Any person may consult the log book.

PERMITS

All persons entering the Ruahines are required by law to have a permit. These are available free of charge from the N.Z. Forest Service. Trip leaders are responsible for obtaining permits for Club trips and can do so either by calling in person or by ringing the Forest Service and having the permit mailed. Do this in plenty of time before the trip.

NEW MEMBER

A welcome this extended to Beryl Kennard, Flat 4, 9 Ada St. P.N.

CONGRATULATIONS

To Kevin Pearce on attaining his Ph.D.

PAST EVENTS

16th-18th February. WINCHCOMBE -- NEILL CROSSING

"You will proceed directly to Cone Hut by the most practical route. You will remain there awaiting further orders." Clear, concise and uncompromising. Why was our trip leader's lawful and reasonable order not obeyed? We will have to wait for the hand written 1,000 word explanations in triplicate expected from each of the three insubordinates for the answer to this question. The explanations should make entertaining reading since it is quite impossible to become lost between Cone Peak and Cone Hut!

The mutiny occurred when three of the party were sent ahead because the leader, the remaining member of the party and the tent fly were making slow time. When the tent fly arrived at Cone Hut there was no sign of the others and no entry in the Hut log book. The deserters finally appeared about 9 o'clock next morning.

The crossing from Otaki Forks to Kaitoke was otherwise uneventful save for a fatal accident near Shannon. Those taking part Owen Robinson, Ian Hoare, Kevin Pearce, Bruce Lockwood and Keith Magrain.

P. S. No huts were used on this weekend -- we camped out every night.

3rd-4th March. Waipakihi River. KAIMANAWAS.

A pathetic turnout of three persons took part on this trip. We travel to the end of the No. 15 access road on Saturday morning and then tramped up the river for four hours to the foot of the Urchin Track where we camped. On Sunday John McFarlane and Keith Magrain went out over Urchin and Kevin Pearce went back down the river to the car. The car was driven around to the Pillars of Hercules where the party was united.
