NOTICES:

LIBRARY

The P.N.T.M.C. Library is now in full operation. The latest magazines from fellow tramping clubs and more historic material makes excellent bedtime reading. These can be borrowed from the Librarian, Peter Darragh, at any time.

PHOTOS NEEDED

Interesting photos of past trips are required for our club photo album and scrap book. Any donations or loan of negatives will be welcomed by Peter Darragh.

P.S. Watch your photos after the competition!

NEW MEMBERS:

A big welcome to the following new members:

Ron Wightman,	131 Dittmer Drive.
Suzanne Leeming,	9 Argyle Ave.
Philip Beech,	35 Ruahine St.
Craig Baird,	13 Makino Rd., Feilding.
Brain Hoare,	39 Burns Ave.

A new book has been published and is now available from the Government Printers at $2.50 per copy, titled: A Guide to environmental Law in N.Z.

PAST TRIP

Sometime after 6 a.m. on Saturday 9th of Sunday 8th May, three loyal members of the club, having left only half their party in Palmerston North, to be picked up at some later unspecified date, set forth up the Ohau track for the Panatewaewae Stream. Fantastic, you say? Well Panatewaewae was on the trip schedule and trip schedules never lie. Besides, Heater's conscience was pricked when Trevor, announcing coming trips at club night, said "You really should get out again, you know, Heather." O.K., she decided, she would and that was a threat!

Anyway Vivien, Ross and Heather arrived at Ohau at varying stages between 11.45 a.m. and 12.30 p.m. – well, I did say they left some time after 6 a.m. They found a party form Levin actually in residence there with a welcoming fire and two dogs.

Rain pelted down intermittently so after lunch, between the showers the party scampered out to the car, some members at least feeling refreshed in limb and spirit and thoroughly washed by the rain.

Trip members: Vivien Mawson, Ross Meder, Heather Crabb.

LOST PROPERTY:

Black parka with patches of white paint left in the boot of someone's car on a past rip. If you have this parka in your car would you please phone James Read, 84-925.
