29th April – Club Night PHOTOGRAPHIC COMPETITION

Our annual photographic competition will be judged by Mr John Cleland. The rules for the competition will be the same as last year i.e.:- 3 sections a) monochrome prints b) colour prints and c) colour slides. Within each section there will be 4 classes:-

- i) Novice Open – for those who have not won an acceptance in any previous photo competition
- ii) Landscape
- iii) Topical – photos of people and action
- iv) Natural History – photos of plants, animals, birds, geology etc.

All photographs which the judge considers to be of acceptable quality for entry shall be awarded an acceptance. Photographs of exceptional quality shall be awarded honours. Entries close immediately prior to judging. A person may not enter more than 4 photos in any class and all photos must not have been previously entered in a PNTMC competition.

30 April – 2 May ROCK CLIMBING INSTRUCTION WEEKEND – WHANGANUI BAY (LAKE TAUPO)

The F.M.C. "Promotion of Mountaineering" subcommittee is sponsoring a series of rock climbing instruction courses. Two very competent instructors have been employed to run the courses. They are Nick Banks and Nigel Sheppard (see below). PNTMC members are invited to apply for places on the above course at Whanganui Bay on the shores of Lake Taupo. Preference will be given to keen intermediate and also to more experienced climbers who will be able to instruct on future Club Rock Climbing Courses. The course is free although participants will have to pay for their transport. Come prepared for camping. Closing time for names is very soon after you receive this newsletter.

4 May – PUBLIC ADDRESS ON MOUNTAINEERING

At the time of this newsletter going to press, details have not been finalised -watch local newspapers for details. Two "guns" will be in town in connection with the F.M.C. "Promotion of Mountaineering" Rock Climbing course described above. Venue yet to be finalised $2.00 entry fee.

Nick Banks has an outstanding climbing record throughout the world, with Mt. Everest being his most well known climb. He is a guide and was an instructor at Plasy Brenin (mountaineering school in Wales) for 3½ years. He was chief instructor at the recent Instructor's Course at Mount Cook, this summer. He is one of the most able instructors in New Zealand today and has a remarkable collection of slides and experiences.

Nigel Sheppard is also a UIAGM guide and has been an instructor at Plasy Brenin for seven years. He is one of Britain's top rock climbers and also a very accomplished alpine climber. He climbs to grade 6C in Britain or 25-26 in Australian system. He has climbed over a 1000 rock routes in Wales, as well, many difficult routes in Yosemite and Colorado. He has a brilliant slide collection and is known for superb lectures.

SEARCH AND RESCUE NEWS

Sergeant Alan Kay has, taken over from Sergeant Ian Sutherland as the Police NCO responsible for SAR in Palmerston North. Constable Ken Drake has returned to the Police SAR squad after an absence of a year or so. The following have been nominated as SAR advisors for Palmerston North: Jim Newman (MTSC), Russ Johnson (RRGC) and Ian Schou (MDSA). The recent SAR Advisory Committee General Meeting (9th March) elected the following Executive Committee: Chairman: Sgt. Alan Kay; Vice Chairman, Jim Newman; Secretary/Treasurer: Russ Johnson; Committee members: George Davies (AREC), Ian Schou, Trevor Reynolds (MTSC), Ian Wilson (MDSA) and Kevin Pearce (PNTMC) who have both been very active in SAR have withdrawn temporarily due to absence from Palmerston North and pressure of other activities, respectively. The Club will need to re-examine its role in SAR particularly its representation at the administration level and its participation in exercises and operations.
