Trips - prepared to lead a trip?

Thank you to those who replied to the note in the last newsletter concerning trips. Your comments have been noted and endeavours will be made to cover as many of the requests as possible. As usual we are looking for Club members who would be interested in leading trips - particularly day trips - easy or medium. If you would like to help please call Linda, Ph 64655, or Urs, Ph 80245.

Notices

- 1) New Members: We welcome the following new members
Julie Plummer, 50 Brightwater Tce, PN.
Phil Clerke, 15 Ashford Ave, PN.
Jenny Madgwick, 9 Newbury St, PN .
- 2) PNTMC 21st Birthday Celebrations

The Club is holding a weekend of activities to celebrate our coming of age on the 12th-14th February 1988 and will be held at the Rangiwahia township. Activities will include an informal wine and cheese evening on Friday night, trips on Saturday into the Ruahines and a dinner and dance on Saturday night. It will be a good chance for all members and ex-members, young and old, to get together. A bumper issue of the newsletter will also be produced.

An organising committee has been set up. More help will be needed towards the date so if you want to help please let the organising committee know. They are; Terry Crippen, Darnnienne Eder, Chris Morton, Roger Redmayne, Sheena Taylor.

So keep that weekend free and tell any ex-members you know about it.

- 3) There are refunds for people who went on the Rangipo Introduction to Snowcraft Course held on 11th - 12th July. Contact Daryl Rowan.

Trip Reports

13th and 14th June – Ketetahi , Tongariro National Park

An early Saturday morning start (after some dissension in the ranks) saw us heading up the Desert Rd to jettison some of the 'Keen Ones' to take the long way to Ketetahi, via Waihothonu, Oturere and the Emerald Lakes. The rest of us casually wandered up to the hut via the Rotoaira side of Tongariro heading for the clouds of steam gushing forth from the springs. A magnificent setting, looking out over Rotoaira, Pihanga and beyond, Taupo. After a wander up to Blue and Emerald Lakes with some cold winds but good view of the craters and Ngauruhoe, and meeting the 'Keen Ones' we headed off to the pools. The pools, roughly dug out in a little valley down from the steam vents, are suitably hot and delightful especially with cold wintry weather about. The hut was overflowing with bods from overseas and an Auckland school group; spatial thrombosis – too many clots to the acre. Some of the 'Keen Ones' slept out under the fly.

The morning was even more misty so the 'Keen Ones' decided to go straight up to North Crater and Tongariro summit to Mangatepopo and the 'Medium Ones' went via the poled route and Red Crater encountering strong winds and rain. The 'slackers' revisited the hot pools and kindly drove the van round to Mangatepopo (via THC Tokaanu ?). So a successful trip with lots of variation.

The 'Keen Ones', 'Medium Ones' and 'Slackers' were (NOT listed by order of keenness) Trevor Bissell, Patrick Janssen, Alan Mountford, Terry Coburn, Daryn Scott, Jenny Dymock, Marie Anne Bechman, Malcolm Alley, Ian Black, Yvonne van der Does, Terry Crippen, Sally Hewson.

20th and 21st June Midwinter at Rangī

There was some snow at Rangī and it was cold and it definitely was the shortest day so for a mid winter celebration all was in order. Twenty-one people made their way up to Rangiwahia Hut for the feast and we had the pleasure of the company of four members of the Bush Tramping Club. As usual there was plenty of food, good company and entertainment – boosted by the rivalry between Phil, John, Roger and Sue contorting with tables, chairs and mops! Sunday dawned misty but cleared nicely for those who opted to stay in the hills for a little longer.

27th and 28th June - Smith's Stream mid Ruahines

A fresh dusting of snow well below the bushline greeted our arrival at the road end. We soon picked our way across the farmland on to Hinerua Ridge with its easy gradient track through mossy beech forest. Very cold conditions at Hinerua Hut brought sleet and prompted us to continue moving after a brief lunch stop. A few minutes from the hut a short track led us into a small tributary of Smith's Stream, choked with gravel and branches but giving reasonable travel. Once in Smith's Stream itself it was easy walking through the narrow gorge to Smith's Stream Hut. With some sleet even at this lower altitude, a fire seemed the best way of improving morale, along with a brew, and later, a huge camp-oven stew.

Unfortunately rain was still falling on Sunday which gave little incentive to linger and explore the area. Retracing our steps we stopped for lunch about an hour from the farmland. A thick mist prevented any views until the Tukituki River was reached. A wet weekend it may have been but enthusiasm remained high with everybody enjoying a break from city doldrums.

We were: John Barkla, Marilyn Barnard, Lorraine Bray, Jenny Madgwick, Chris Morton, David Sussulch, John Wright.

4th and 5th July Wharite

If you want to see where the most splendid concrete edifice was, where two palatial loos used to be, and to find out why they are no longer there, then you should have come on this tramp!

We decided to begin our Wharite trip from the Coppermine Road-end. It was a highway track-sign posted as 2.5 hour trip one way. Although starting out as a bit of a grunt there was steady easy climbing to the top signpost. At this point 4 of us decided to have lunch while those who wanted to go onto Wharite T.V. receiver station did so – about 20 minutes further on. We did get the occasional view of Hawkes Bay, through the murk. The weather certainly turned it on for us as we experienced chilling winds, hail, rain and sunshine.

This day trip was enjoyed by Gayle, Janet, Ann, Terry, Liz, Margaret, Tricia and Trev.

FAREWELL TO PNTMC

We thank you all for your kindly thoughts
Presented oh their silver tray,
Which, like the very best surprise
Left us at a loss as to what to say.

'Tis sad for us to leave P.N.
And turn our backs on the ranges,
But time marches on, even if we don't,
And we have to accept some changes!

Whatever we may have put into the club
We've got back in very good measure.
We've had good times, and fond memories,
Of countless hours of pleasure.

But lest you think that we should be
Over the hill, and far away,
We'd like you to establish base camp with us
And explore the windy region, some day.

Peter and Nanette Clough
